

Hot Pepper

Capsicum annuum

Vindaloo

HYBRID

General Description:

This is a new British bred, fast cropping chilli pepper producing huge yields of striking very long fruits measuring around 20 cm in length.

The plants are fairly compact and bushy making them ideal for container growing outdoors or in the greenhouse. Ripening quickly from green to bright red, the fruits and are very spicy as the name suggests.

Vindaloo is very heavy cropping and the fruit shape makes them perfect for easy drying to store over the winter months or they can be chopped and frozen.
